

Abstract Submission Terms and Conditions

The submission of an abstract indicates and understanding and acceptance of the following rules for participation in ICORS Congress 2025.

The abstract(s) you present is (are) your work and you have the authority to submit the work.

The name(s) and affiliation(s) of the author(s) will be used in connection with the abstract and, if accepted, the presentation, as provided by you in the abstract submission.

You confirm having received the prior approval of all co-workers/co-authors to provide the data.

The author(s) will retain Intellectual Property (IP) of their abstract(s) and, if accepted, their presentation(s), in addition to the moral rights they are entitled to as authors.

You provide ICORS Congress 2025 with permission to use all materials provided in your abstract as per these terms and conditions for ICORS Congress 2025 publications (including online).

All intellectual property rights in the abstract submission and ensuing presentation remain the property of the author(s). You grant ICORS Congress 2025 a worldwide, non-exclusive right to publish, reproduce, distribute, display and store the abstract(s) and, if accepted, the ensuing presentation(s) in all forms (including on the ICORS Congress 2025 website), formats and media now known or as developed in the future, including print, electronic and digital forms. Study data remains the IP of the author(s) and study sponsors as relevant.

The presenter(s) agree(s) to allow ICORS Congress 2025 to use/reproduce their image(s) to promote ICORS Congress 2025, and also provide(s) permission for ICORS Congress 2025 to record imagery of the presenter(s) during the congress, and to use these images as per ICORS Congress 2025 Privacy Policy.

The author(s) agree(s) to materially confine their presentation(s) to information in the abstract if accepted for presentation. If an author has more than one abstract accepted, each presentation will be materially confined to the information in the abstract selected for the specific session.

If selected for the program, at least one author will be available in person to provide the presentation ensuing from the abstract at ICORS Congress 2025. Authors will immediately notify the Congress Organisers, All Occasions Group via email at conference@aomevents.com if they are unable to present, or if the presenter changes.

The presenting author will be required to register for the Congress in order to ensure the abstract of their presentation(s) is (are) included in the final program. All submissions must be completed electronically via the online submission facility and include a high-resolution profile image of the presenter(s).

ICORS Congress 2025 reserves the right to remove a presentation from the program. ICORS Congress 2025 will not be held responsible for abstract submissions not received via the website, or for submission errors caused by internet service outages, hardware or software delays, power outages or unforeseen events.